FEELER STRIP SET

Code : G736

- A feeler strips set in engineering testing laboratories is used to measure gap widths or clearances between two surfaces with high precision. It's commonly used for calibrating equipment or ensuring proper alignment and spacing in mechanical parts.

ORDERING INFORMATION

Item Name	Item Code
FEELER STRIP SET	G736X001H